

Position Vacancy Announcement

Human Environmental Sciences, Personal Financial Planning Department

Assistant Professor, 2210110

Position Description

Assistant Professor of Personal Financial Planning

Tenure Track

Nine-month academic appointment, with summer funding possible

Responsibilities/Duties:

Provide undergraduate and graduate instruction in courses relating to financial planning. Experience in spreadsheet applications and/or financial planning software is desired.

Advise and mentor undergraduate/graduate students

Publish research consistent with the mission of the department

Seek extramural support for the missions of the department

Work with industry partners to facilitate the department's future and the placement of graduates

Serve on department, college, and university committees

Qualifications

Earned doctorate in Personal Financial Planning, Finance, Consumer/Family Economics, or Economics.

Scholarly competency judged by research experience and promise.

Collegiality and ability to work with existing faculty.

CFP® certificate desired or CFP® certificate earned within 4 years of hire.

Experience teaching subject matter in a large classroom environment.

Active professional membership in relevant organizations.

Experience in financial planning and financial planning curriculum development strongly desired.

Salary & Starting Date:

Commensurate with qualifications. Competitive with national Human Sciences financial planning programs. Starting Date Effective August 2008

Application Procedures:

Send letter of application, curriculum vita, examples of research and/or creative activities, official transcripts, and the names, address, and telephone numbers of three references to: Dr. Robert Weagley, Chair, Dept. of Personal Financial Planning, 241 Stanley Hall, University of Missouri-Columbia, Columbia MO 65211, Phone # 573-882-9651, Fax # 573-884-8389, Email: WeagleyR@missouri.edu